

Ocean County Ethics Committee

Meeting September 16, 2008 @ Residence @ Toms River

The meeting was called to order by Ed Mount, Co-chair, in the absence of Chairperson Cathy Vakulchik.

No speaker was scheduled for today's meeting. Ed proceeded with a discussion on the Committee's new website which is now up and running! He brought a laptop today so all present could view it. The website is excellent – professionally done and very informative. Ed explained its content and potential, noting that we have the distinction of currently now being the only Ethics Committee in NJ with an active website. The title is oceancountyethics.com. It contains members' names and affiliations with their respective company websites attached to their names. Member application and Case Consultation Request Form are also included. Upcoming events can be posted whenever a member requests such from Ed. We will also have the capability of paying dues on line.

Ed noted one upcoming event will be a "Car Show and Petting Zoo" to be held at Bey Lea Village, Toms River, on September 27, 2008. All are welcome to attend.

Discussion of possibility of having a S.E.E.D. Training Seminar this year was brought up. There is always a need for additional educated members. This will be brought to the attention of Debra Branch, Ombudsman of N.J. It has been two (2) years since we have had the opportunity to acquire this training.

Kathy Bogajevski, Treasurer, announced that we currently have a balance of $2526.95 in our account. Per Ed, the website is paid for the entire year already.

It was suggested that we look for speakers for seminars for future meetings.

Jean Moran, Case Manager for Burnt Tavern, announced that her facility will be having a free C.E.U. Seminar on October 8, 2008 on "Advanced Directives, Powers of Attorney and other Planning Tools", given by William Moran. Attendees must register by October 1, 2008 with Kelly McCloskey, Admissions Director @ Burnt Tavern.

The Committee is looking for a volunteer to take over the role of Committee Secretary. Any interested party, please contact Ed or Cathy V.
